Mythcon 51: A VIRTUAL “HALFLING” MYTHCON

July 31 - August 1, 2021 (Saturday and Sunday)

<http://www.mythsoc.org/mythcon/mythcon-51.htm>

Mythcon 52: The Mythic, the Fantastic, and the Alien

Albuquerque, New Mexico; July 29 - August 1, 2022

Knocking the final chips of dried mud off his boots, Conover pulled his feet away from the common room fireplace.

He knew he'd have to brave the afternoon downpours if he wanted to make any headway. Absently he ran a finger along the edge of his new cloak. The fur was the finest he had ever owned. But then again, the wolf he'd killed for it had been exceptional.

"Exceptionally stupid," Conover muttered to himself as he pushed the door open to step into the rain, and whatever the day held for him.

EDITORIAL

Hi everyone—here's issue #20 of The Mythic Circle. We have stories which range from fairy tale to modern yarn, and poems from such redoubtable authors as Joe Christopher and David Sparenberg. We also have our usual talented illustrators, along with some great new offerings by Sue Dawe. We hope you enjoy the issue.

You have probably noticed that the issue is quite late. We do apologize for this. Tina's legal practice and her triplets are growing (they are six years old now!), and as a result her daily responsibilities are overflowing the hours available in her day. Tina would also like to begin writing again, which she has not been able to do since the children were born.

Therefore, with regret, Tina has decided that she must withdraw as editor of The Mythic Circle after she gets this issue out. Sherwood is not able to take on additional editorial responsibilities at this time. We are searching, therefore, for some person or combination of people to take Tina's place. If no one appears, The Mythic Circle will suspend publication until a new editor is found.

If you are interested in becoming a new editor of The Mythic Circle, please write Tina or Sherwood (or any of the Council of Stewards of the Mythopoeic Society) at P.O. Box 6707, Altadena, California 91003-6707.

Tina would like to say that it has been a privilege to be editor of The Mythic Circle, and that she has enjoyed getting to know you. She will see you at future Mythcons. The best to all of you.

LETTERS OF COMMENT

Dear editors

Greetings. I wanted to thank you for my contributor's copy of the latest Mythic Circle. I was pleasantly surprised at the quality and brilliance of its contents, and I was proud to have my poem "Amber" included.

I have long been a C.S. Lewis fan and a fan of Greek mythology. It's nice to see that someone is keeping the magic alive!

Especially liked "Once Upon a Prince" by David Sander. Reminded me of the fairy tales of Andrew Lang

(Blue Fairy Book, Red Fairy Book, etc. Wonderful collections—all of them!)

Loved Sue Nevill's "Moon Marks" poem. "Women have died for skin this pale..." Very beautiful, poignant.

Thank you for your efforts in publishing The Mythic Circle.

Corrine De Winter
Springfield, Ma.

C.S. Lewis - A Centenary Celebration

Sponsored by The Mythopoeic Society, incorporating Mythcon XXIX

July 8 through July 13, 1998

at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois

Celebrating C.S. Lewis' birth in 1898, this special 5-day conference promises to be a truly memorable event. Right now through August 15, 1997, you can become a member for the special initial rate of $50.00, rising to $75.00 through December 31, 1997 (prices will rise again in 1998).

There will be a 3-day pre-conference workshop for those desiring an additional in-depth study of Lewis, Monday, July 6, through Wednesday July 8, 1998.

Wheaton College is uniquely well-suited for this celebration because of the Wade Center, a fine collection of letters and works of C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, Dorothy Sayers, Charles Williams, and Owen Barfield, among others.

For more information or membership, please write to: Mythcon XXIX, c/o Lynn Maudlin, P.O. Box 394, Altadena, CA 91003-0394 (please make checks out to Mythcon XXIX or Mythcon 29).

This is not a function of Wheaton College.
